

Prizes Offered For War Loan Month Premises Decoration

Four Prizes In War Savings Certificates Will Be Given, Mayor Announces, Start On May 24

Urging the citizens of the town to decorate their homes, schools and places of business, beginning on the national holiday, May 24, and throughout the victory loan month of June, Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales issued a proclamation to this effect at a meeting of the town council on Monday evening.

"I have at my disposal $50 in war certificates as prizes for the best-decorated home and business place," said Mayor Dales. The prize for the best-decorated home will be $15 and for the next best $10 and the same for the best business places, he announced.

"I want the town to rally to this outward token during this war-loan month," continued Mayor Dales. "I thought it might lend a little to the success of this drive. I am going to ask the citizens to carry out this idea loyally."

Councillor A. D. Evans, chairman of the water and light committee, said that there were enough of the colored street lights left to string along Main St.

They were pretty though they did cost something," said the mayor. It was left to the property and water and light committees to look after the decorating of town property.

MILLARD AVE. ORIOLE HAS NEW SONG

By GOLDEN GLOW

Many a person this past week, who has never taken much notice of birds, is asking his friends and neighbors just what bird it is that keeps saying "Peter, Peter," all day long in the Millard Ave. neighborhood.

Some of us caught sight of it, and although it looked like the orange and black female oriole, we thought it couldn't be, for we all know and love the orioles' musical whistle. But oriole it must be.

One tiny girl up the street says, "I don't like that Peter bird, it never stops!" Two men working nearby stopped to listen and one told the other, "Why that bird says 'Peter' as plain as you or I."

BEVERAGE ROOMS OPPOSITION FORMS

A group of citizens interested in opposing the establishment of beverage rooms in Newmarket are calling a meeting in the town hall on Tuesday evening.

Everyone interested is invited to attend the meeting.

Queen's Park Rules Tax-Collector Must Be Bonded, So Town Council Abolishes Ancient, Honorable Post

Newmarket will have no official tax-collector in a few days but that doesn't mean that citizens of the town won't pay taxes. Like the weather, taxes will go on just the same.

N. L. Mathews, K.C., town clerk and solicitor, told the town council on Monday evening that he had received notice from provincial authorities that the tax-collector must be bonded. Instead of going to the expense of having Chief Constable James Sloss, who is also the tax-collector, bonded, Mr. Mathews suggested that the council do away with the position since it doesn't mean anything anyway.

IS OUT AGAIN
R. J. Thomas, who has been ill for some time, is improved in health, and is able to be out again.

MOVED TO BARRIE
Clifford Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Barker of Newmarket, has been transferred to Barrie from the Loblaw store here.

JOINS NAVY
Frank Bailey, employee of the Davis Leather Co., has been ordered to report for his medical test preparatory to joining the Canadian navy.

JOS. TILLEY HEADS SIMCOE SOFTBALLERS

At a meeting held in Mount Albert on Monday evening the following officers were elected for the Lake Simcoe Softball League: president, Jos. Tilley, Mount Albert; 1st vice-president, Leslie McKnight, Pine Orchard; 2nd vice-president, Percy Mahoney, Keswick; secretary, James Denne, Queensville; treasurer, Archie Dike, Sharon; publicity agent, James Denne, Queensville; official umpire, Charles Cunningham, Newmarket.

The first three games are: May 27, Keswick at Sharon; May 28, Zephyr at Pine Orchard; May 29, Willow Beach at Mount Albert.

The 1941 schedule will be published next week.

WILL HOLD TEA
A blossom tea is being held on Thursday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. Max Smith, Millard Ave., by the war work committee of the W. L. from 3 to 6 p.m.

MEET ONCE A MONTH
Beginning June 9, the town council will meet only once a month during the summer. Meetings will be held on the second Monday of each month.

JEAN PEPIATT MADE NEWMARKET CLUB OFFICER

Miss Jean Peppiatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Peppiatt, Newmarket, was re-elected vice-president of the Newmarket Club Alumni Association at a meeting in Newman Hall, Toronto, on Sunday. The Newman Alumni Association is made up of Catholic graduates of the University of Toronto.

SUFFERS STROKE

Clinton Stokes, Timothy St., a well-known local painter, suffered a stroke yesterday. Although Mr. Stokes was out of bed today, his condition is still poor.

"Chief Sloss is the tax-collector but doesn't collect," said Mr. Mathews. "He was appointed tax-collector rather than have an extra official. There is no necessity for having him bonded. We don't need one because I do the work anyway."

"The position is not compulsory," asked Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales.

"No, it isn't," replied Mr. Mathews. Clerk Mathews said that he has prepared a by-law to abolish the position.

"Instead of firing the man we just get rid of the position," smiled Mayor Dales.

OIL STREETS AT TOWN COST, COUNCIL VOTES

DEPUTY-REEVE VALE OBJECTS TO NEW POLICY AS UN SOUND

MAYOR CITES HEALTH

Beginning this year, the town will assume the responsibility of oiling the dirt roads in Newmarket, the town council decided at a meeting on Monday evening. A motion to that effect was carried.

N. L. Mathews, K.C., town clerk and solicitor, said that the cost of oiling the roads will be budgeted for on next year's tax bill. Frontage charges will be discontinued after this year.

"We have no petitions for oiling some streets," said Councillor Frank Bowser, chairman of the road and bridge committee. "Are we going to oil these streets?"

"I say no," Councillor Wm. Dixon declared. "If those people are not interested in it, we shouldn't put any oil on those roads."

"Why not put the oil on all the streets and put it on the general tax bill and stop this money business," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "You have more trouble over four cents in this town than you do over four dollars. It should be a municipal responsibility and the town should oil all these streets."

All members of the council approved the motion except Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale, who declared: "I am opposed to the man on the paved street paving for the oiling of streets whose residents don't want it. I think you are setting a bad precedent."

Mayor Dales said that in the interests of health all dirt roads in the town should be oiled. "It's not going to make that much difference in the tax rate," he declared.

Councillor Bowser estimated that the cost of oiling the roads this summer will be $1,000.

C. K. MORRISON DIES, ASSESSOR 13 YEARS

Town assessor from 1922 to 1934, Charles K. Morrison, well-known Newmarket resident, died at his home, 14 Strigley St., on Monday in his 87th year. He had been ill a week as the result of a fall.

Born in East Gwillimbury, just north of Newmarket, he was the son of Amelia Kinsey and Benjamin Franklin Morrison. His father farmed on the second, and Mr. Morrison was brought up on the farm. He attended public school on the second and high school in Newmarket. He took a third-class teaching license but did not teach long.

With a brother, Mr. Morrison was in the painting business at Highland Creek for a time. He kept a grocery store in Listowel and then a paint and wallpaper store in Barrie. He returned to Newmarket 53 years ago and operated the farm on Huron St. at "Morrison's corner" now farmed by Phil Hamilton. Mr. Morrison worked for 16 years in the woodworking department of the Office Specialty Manufacturing Co.

Mr. Morrison remembered the school children under the direction of Alexander Muir singing "The Maple Leaf Forever" when the Earl of Dufferin, then the governor-general of Canada, visited Newmarket. It was the first time it had ever been sung publicly.

Surviving are his widow, formerly Sarah S. Turner, five daughters, Mrs. Stanley Teskey (Minnie), Wellington; P. R. C. Edwards county, Mrs. C. W. Hill (Hattie), Toronto; Mrs. H. J. Nixon (Vera), Toronto; Mrs. A. W. Rowe (Olive), Aurora; and Eva A. Morrison, Newmarket; one son, Ezra E., at Westminster military hospital, London, Ont., and 13 grandchildren.

Mr. Morrison was married twice. His first wife was Hattie Turner, whom he married in 1880. Harry Roy Morrison, who died in San Francisco in 1938, and Mrs. Teskey, were born of his first wife. In 1887 Mr. Morrison married his first wife's sister, Sarah Turner.

One son was killed in the great war when his plane fell into the sea. A funeral service was held at the funeral chapel of Roadhouse and Rose on Tuesday evening. Interment was made in Hollin cemetery, Wellington county, yesterday afternoon.

The Newmarket town council paid tribute to the fine work of Mr. Morrison while an employee of the town, at a meeting on Monday night.

System Not Changed, Osborne Replies To Challenge By Dales

Declares Inquest Verdict Freed Council Of Any Blame In Baby Death, Councillors Sign Letter

A letter headed "J. S. Osborne's reply to Dr. L. W. Dales' letter in your paper of May 15," and signed by the members of East Gwillimbury township council, J. S. Osborne, reeve, Byron Stiver, deputy-reeve, Walter Proctor, A. F. Shaw and George Pearson, has been received by The Era.

"Dr. Dales accused me as either not knowing what was going on, or that I don't want to know the facts, or that I have not stated the truth."

"I would like to deny the doctor's statement that he gave me a copy of the relief act. During my reevehip I have always had a copy of the Ontario statutes in my home and have kept myself familiar with the act at all times. I have discussed the letter with my council and the following is our reply."

"We would like to inform Dr. Dales that we as a council were aware of the way the medical relief was carried on in East Gwillimbury."

"Every relief recipient had the privilege of choosing his or her doctor during the whole of our administration. The municipalities of Ontario all paid 35 cents per person per month to the Medical Association for people on relief and the doctors' accounts were paid by the association."

"As soon as a family went off relief then the assessment of 35 cents per month ceased and the Medical Association paid no accounts. Dr. W. L. Carruthers was appointed indigent doctor at a small salary of $200 per year to give attention to people when the relief was cut off and to all other indigents who did not have the means to pay medical fees."

"Dr. Dales has been misinformed if he thinks the people on relief were sent to Dr. Carruthers."

"The jurors' verdict at the inquest referred to by Dr. Dales showed that the council were not to blame for the death of the Drake child."

"Dr. Dales has in no way changed the plans of the council in dealing with the relief situation."

"We are following the ruling of the department of welfare and we do not intend to change our system through the protest of any one doctor."

"We would advise Dr. Dales, if he wants the relief work in East Gwillimbury, to get busy and canvass the relief recipients."

"We consult our solicitor at all times concerning legal questions, and do not intend to take unofficial advice through the newspaper columns."

Recruits Fill Ranks At No. 23, Grads Choose "Work"

OVER 1,000 MEN ARE AT CAMP, NO WORD OF CANVAS ADDITION

About 440 trainees arrived at the Newmarket training camp on Tuesday and the same number, who had completed their required two-months training at this basic training camp, left by motor transport the same day for Camp Borden.

Trainees at the Newmarket camp have "fairly much their own choice" as to what branch of the army they will go into when they leave, Captain E. B. Dodgson, adjutant, told The Era.

"To a certain extent they may choose what army work they want to take up," said Captain Dodgson. "It depends on whether they are qualified for that work."

Trainees who don't intend going into active service will take their place in either the army service corps, ordnance, infantry, signalling or artillery, Captain Dodgson stated. In order to transfer to the navy or air force they must enlist for active service.

Captain Dodgson said that he didn't expect that there would be such an increase in the number of trainees at the camp this summer that some would have to be put under canvas. "I have no reason to believe that yet," he said. "I don't expect an increase over the numbers we have had before."

At present there are nearly 1,100 troops at the camp.

NEWMARKET TRAINEE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

One trainee from the Newmarket military camp was killed and two others injured when their car collided with a Gray Coach Lines bus in Toronto early Sunday.

Three girls who had been with them at a dance were also injured. Pte. Ross Clark, Kingston, was killed.

RABBI EISENDRATH

NO LONGER A PACIFIST, SAYS NOTED RABBI

"FACING BEAST," DECLARES
RABBI EISENDRATH
AT COLLEGE

MARK EMPIRE DAY

Pickering college students held an Empire Youth Service in the college chapel on Sunday night. A period of silence was observed in honor of three old boys who have given their lives in this war.

Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath, of Toronto, told his audience that "the tools of victory" are three, first, the physical tool, guns and ammunition, second, the tool of national unity, third, the tool of faith.

"We must make certain this time of a true victory that will usher in a binding peace," he declared. "We must defeat the most ferocious monster that man has ever known."

Rabbi Eisendrath said that men who, before the German threat, were "absolute pacifists" like himself have realized that a German victory will mean the extinction of religion and morality from the world and are now wholly with the Allies in their fight.

"After he had fought in the last war, Robert Sherwood, that great author, poet and playwright, renounced war and vowed he would not have anything to do with war again," said Rabbi Eisendrath. The following quotation from one of Sherwood's books, he added, shows his change of mind: "A fire is blazing in the world... until that fire is put out there can be no peace, happiness or security."

Rabbi Eisendrath said that "it was after much inner spiritual wrestling before I could call upon my fellowmen to gird themselves of the tools of war."

Canadians must be generous in providing money for the physical tools of war, he said. "We cannot be misers, for our enemies are not misers and have staked everything on the outcome of this war."

National unity in Canada is the next tool for victory, the speaker declared.

"We are not beginning to reach the plane of national unity essential for victory," said Rabbi Eisendrath. "I am not in favor of force but unless we put aside our bigotries and differences, then nothing but catastrophe will follow and we will deserve the doom that will come upon us."

"Province is still set against province, French against English, English against French, Catholic against Protestant, Protestant against Catholic and with all against the Jew. Unless we attain unity soon, we will be no match for those who by force have united their nation into one phalanx."

Many Canadians still have the attitude of Cain when he said, "Am I my brother's keeper?" declared the speaker. When Japan invaded China and when Italy invaded Ethiopia "we felt we were no longer our brother's keeper," said Rabbi Eisendrath.

"And because we ignored those other wars, babies are being bombed in England."

Saying that the third tool of victory is faith, Rabbi Eisendrath said that even the Nazis have recognized that and have substituted for faith in God faith in Der Fuehrer.

"War is an affair of morale in which the side with the stoutest heart succeeds," he said. "The Nazis are sustained by faith in Der Fuehrer." He said that even though their plans and purposes are "bestial and dark as the pit of hell" the Nazis still have a purpose.

"These are the tools for victory," concluded Rabbi Eisendrath. "When we have achieved them we can say, 'The Lord is with me, who then shall I fear?'"

Arleigh Armstrong Asks Council For Vote On Beer Sale

Council Must Forward Request To Liquor Control
Board, Would Also Open Way For Liquor Store

Newmarket, which has been a dry town for many years, will probably vote in the fall on the question of establishment of beverage rooms for the sale of beer in the town.

A three-fifths majority favorable vote would be necessary and would also open the way for establishment of a government liquor store in Newmarket.

Councillor Arleigh Armstrong, proprietor of the King George hotel, Newmarket, filed a petition to "submit the question to the electors," when the town council met on Monday evening. He stated that he had secured more than the required number of names to necessitate a vote.

N. L. Mathews, K.C., town clerk and solicitor, said that a by-law authorizing the vote will have to be passed by the council and the liquor control board will set the date of the vote.

"Can the council recommend a date for the vote?" asked Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales.

"Yes," replied Mr. Mathews. He said that the board would take any such recommendation from the town into consideration.

"I'd like a ruling from the clerk whether a member of the council can present a petition to the council," said Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale. "It is my idea that a member of council can't. I'd like a ruling on it."

After looking up the matter, Mr. Mathews said a member of the town council could present a petition to the town council.

M.O.H. Censures Citizens Not Advising Of Disease

WHOOPIING - COUGH IN TOWN, VACCINE TREAT-MENT ADVISED

"This is to remind the public that there is whooping cough in town and to remember that this disease is one of the important communicable diseases of which the provincial Health Act requires notification of the local M.O.H. or the clerk of the board," Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., stated this week.

"Ignorance of the act does not relieve anyone from the penalty for failure to notify the health authorities of the presence of this disease in the home," Dr. Wesley said.

"It always results in a great deal of unpleasantness when we have to resort to these severe measures to protect the public against any communicable disease, and it is hoped some few people will be more particular in their obligation to their neighbors, for by the negligence of one single person, we always have to fight the ravages of an epidemic of one of these communicable diseases."

"Better have the kids protected against this whooping cough by having your usual family doctor give them the vaccine treatment which acts as a protective against the disease as well as relieving the severity of the attacks and the length of the sickness."

Dr. Wesley said that this treatment could be given to children who are receiving scarlet fever toxoid.

START AUG. 1
Quinlan's, manufacturing hassocks, will take over the former Dorland-Bender building on Huron St. on Aug. 1. Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale, chairman of the industrial committee, told the town council on Monday evening. A by-law authorizing the signing of the lease was adopted.

"You Swear No Affidavits And I'll Take Out No Appendixes," Lawyer-Clerk Tells Doctor-Mayor

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales asked N. L. Mathews, K.C., town clerk and solicitor, whether, in his official capacity as mayor, he was also a justice of the peace and could sign affidavits that are brought to him, at a meeting of the town council on Monday evening.

"People bring these things to me and I want to know whether I should sign them or not," the mayor said.

"Why not send them to a lawyer?" said Mr. Mathews. "If a man came to me to have his appendix out I would send him to a doctor." However, Mr. Mathews said he would look up the matter.

Reeve Fred A. Lundy said that he would like to know also whether he could sign affidavits.

IT'S NOT TRUE!

It was disturbing to us to see the New York advertising-less daily newspaper, PM, advising Americans that they should get into the war because Germany is setting up an industrial system in Europe which after the war will drive American manufacturers out of world markets.

Perhaps the reprint of the article which we read was abridged and was unfair to the full article, but the main thesis of the article seemed to be that the war is a war to save American markets.

We don't believe that.

Nor do we believe that war in itself can save democracy—victory can only give the democratic countries another chance to repair the mistakes we have made in the past.

But we don't believe that this is a war to prevent Germany or Europe from gaining a predominant economic position. One of our war aims should be to make continental Europe, as Germany is doing, a single economic unit without all the tariff barriers that contribute to poverty and war.

There may be those of us who think that the war is a war for markets, and it may be that to some extent it will prove to be a war for markets, but we don't believe that either Prime Minister Churchill or President Roosevelt is interested in maintaining British or American trade supremacy or even present-day economic practices and ideas.

We think that both these great war leaders believe that this is a war for personal freedom and liberty.

MRS. SONGSPARROW STICKS CLOSE TO HOME

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"I hope that Yellow Warbler finds a mate soon," Carol Songsparrow confided to her better half. "He's a nice fellow to have around, very pretty and a pleasant companion, but he has quite a loud and persistent song, and these days he never seems to stop singing. Yet I haven't seen any lady Yellow Warblers near him. Here's hoping one will come along soon, and then he can settle down and not sing quite so steadily."

"Oh, I'm sure he will," Mr. Songsparrow replied. "He's such a handsome fellow. That beautiful sunny yellow, all over, and the pretty, dark red streaking on his breast, so attractive."

"What with the Yellow Warbler, and the Baltimore Oriole, who is singing so much too, in that loud, warbling voice of his, we certainly can't feel lonely, can we?" Carol remarked.

"May is certainly the songsters' month," agreed Mr. Songsparrow. "There are lots of other singers around here, too. Just listen to that Bobolink over on the fence-post at the edge of the road, pouring out his bubbling song! He rather reminds me of a clown. He's such a jolly fellow and he has that funny motley suit, yellow and white and black patches."

"Then there's our friend, the Catbird, if we're thinking of the birds that make the most noise these days," added Carol. "I swear that bird knows dozens of different songs. The Catbirds are as bad as the Brown Thrashers for showing how many different songs they can make up or imitate, aren't they?"

"We've been singing quite a lot ourselves," the gentleman Sparrow reminded his mate. "And, oh yes, we forgot to mention our good-looking friend, the Rose-breasted Grosbeak. He's another hearty and good singer—with a clear, warbling song. I heard him this morning."

"My gracious goodness sakes alive!" exclaimed Mr. Songsparrow suddenly, a moment afterwards. "Just look who's here. I can't believe my eyes."

"Well you're eyes aren't deceiving you, I'm sure," replied a new voice.

"Who is it?" called Carol from her nest, where she was conscientiously sitting on her eggs. "I can't see from here."

"I'll talk to him and come over and tell you all about it in a minute, my sweet," her mate replied.

"I suppose I could leave the nest for a minute, and go and see for myself," Carol said to herself, "but I guess I'd better not just now. This nest on the ground is awkward, because I can't see much that's going on. I can only hear who's around. If our nest were high up, I could

We are encouraged in this faith by the splendid statement of peace principles by a member of the Roosevelt cabinet, Secretary of State Cordell Hull, on Sunday—a statement which amounts to a severe criticism of his own country in the past.

We quote Mr. Hull in part:

"1. Extreme nationalism must not again be permitted to express itself in excessive trade restrictions.

"2. Nondiscrimination in international commercial relations must be the rule, so that international trade may grow and prosper.

"3. Raw material supplies must be available to all nations without discrimination.

"4. International agreements regulating the supply of commodities must be so handled as to protect fully the interests of the consuming countries and their people.

"5. The institutions and arrangements of international finance must be so set up that they lend aid to the essential enterprises and the continuous development of all countries."

SATURDAY'S A HOLIDAY

Victoria or Empire day falling on Saturday has revived the question of why all holidays should not be held on Mondays. Kirkland Lake merchants have been debating whether they should close on Monday instead of Saturday, so that they would not lose Saturday's business. Brockville and Belleville are said to have made definite decisions in favor of Monday.

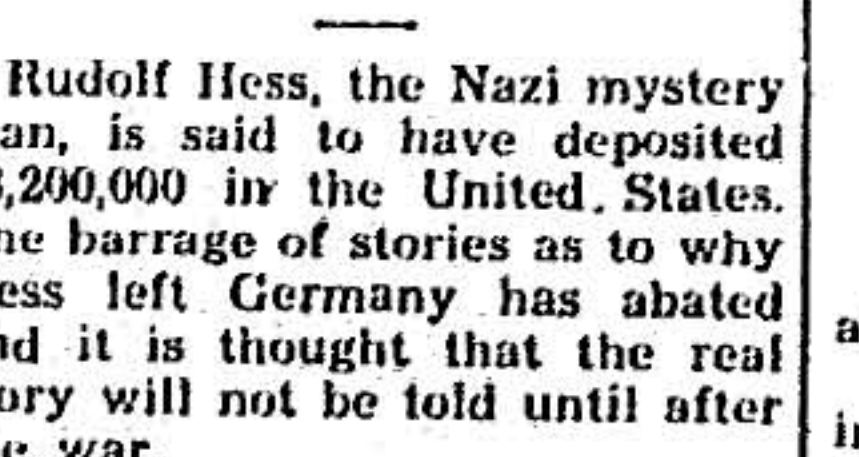

Newmarket and Aurora are usually necessarily governed in such matters by Toronto, but the considerations entering into a Toronto decision are different from those which might otherwise influence Newmarket and Aurora business people. Toronto "merchants" may be great business houses who are not the least concerned about any difference in sales that might result from whether they close on Monday or Saturday or any other day. Similarly, those who make the decision are not themselves serving behind a counter and, we suppose, can choose their own day for going fishing regardless of the store holiday.

Newmarket's board of trade should have gone into this question some weeks ago and made a decision. We have a board of trade—are we slipping?

Rudolf Hess, the Nazi mystery man, is said to have deposited $3,200,000 in the United States. The barrage of stories as to why Hess left Germany has abated and it is thought that the real story will not be told until after the war.

Navy Secretary Frank Knox said last week that the United States was in "mortal danger utterly impossible to exaggerate," but said that the U. S. navy, "the first line of defence," is better prepared than ever before in its history.

The Germans were driven out of Egypt after the storming and capturing of Salun by British troops last week. It was announced on Monday that the Duke of Aosta, viceroy of Ethiopia, had given up and had agreed to surrender his remaining forces on British terms, leaving only two Italian outposts still holding out in Ethiopia.

The Egyptian steamship Zamzam, reported to have 138 Americans and 22 Canadians on board, is feared sunk in the south Atlantic, it was announced this week. Most of these Americans were missionaries and field service ambulance drivers bound for Africa. Later reports say that the passengers are safe but in Nazi custody.

German troops, numbering at least 1,500, were dropped on the British-Greek island base of Crete on Tuesday from gliders, transport planes and parachutes. They were reported disguised in New Zealand battle dress. They were said to be all accounted for. Other troops have been landed since and the battle grows in intensity.

MAKING FLYING SAFER

A recent development in aviation is the Terrain Clearance Indicator, which gives the height of a plane above the ground immediately below it. The former barometric altimeter gave the height above sea-level only. A pilot who drifted off his course in poor visibility had no means of estimating his clearance, and was likely to run his plane into a mountain side.

The new indicator operates by "bouncing" a radio wave from the plane to the ground and back, and measuring the transit time. The interval is too short to measure directly, so the frequency of the transmitter is changed continuously. The difference between incoming and outgoing frequencies gives the number of waves sent out in the interval. The greater the number, the longer the transit time, and the greater

The clearance. The meter is calibrated from 20 to 5,000 feet, so that the pilot can tell at a glance how high he is.

As a result of these experiments, the pilot can keep continuously posted on the weather, landing conditions and so forth. At the larger airports, where many machines may be landing at one time, this communication system is used to "stack" planes at different levels, so that they can be brought in one by one.

Another interesting device helps guide aircraft down when rain or fog makes safe landing difficult. Intricate equipment translates sound signals into light signals at the administration building of the airport. A tiny speck of green light moving across a screen of frosted glass gives the exact position of the plane. Airport officials can note any errors the pilot makes in bringing his machine down through the fog.

Perfectly by Russell C. Newhouse of Bell Telephone Laboratories, the indicator exemplifies the many valuable by-products of telephone research. Other aviation devices have been developed by the telephone laboratories during the past few years.

The first of these was a two-way communication system, whereby a pilot in flight can keep in constant touch with the airport. A few years ago, when this system was being tested, a newspaper reporter climbed aboard the Bell Telephone Laboratories test plane. When it was in flight, he called up his editor and said, "Hello, chief! I'm about 1,500 feet up in the air and talking to you by telephone!" Great

POLICE COURT

CHIROPRACTOR HAD NO LICENSE, FINED $25

Charged with "holding himself out as a druggist practitioner and not being duly registered" within the time of six months prior to April 20, Thomas Smith, Aurora, was fined $25 and costs of $19, or 30 days by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe in Newmarket police court on Tuesday. Mr. Smith pleaded not guilty to the charge.

According to the testimony of Roy King, Toronto, private investigator of the board of regents, Toronto, he was sent by the board to the defendant's room in the Royal Hotel in Drayton on April 28.

"I went in and told him I had a sore shoulder and asked him what he could do for it," stated the witness. "He said that he couldn't do much until there was an x-ray taken.

Asked whether he really had a sore shoulder, he said that he did. He further stated that he paid $5 for the x-ray and made arrangements to get treatments at the defendant's office in Aurora. He said that he was given literature about the drugless treatments and that these papers bore the name of Thomas Smith, D.C., H. O., P.S.C., and x-ray A.V.

"Did he tell you what he was?" 29th?" "Yes," he showed me the x-ray papers and pointed out that my spine was out of position about one-quarter of an inch."

Describing the treatment he received Mr. King said that Mr. Smith placed one hand on his shoulder and another on his wrist and applied pressure. "He asked me if it was a black-out for me and I said that it almost was."

Mr. King stated that he paid $1 for the treatment, and received a receipt. He was to return the following Thursday for another treatment, which he did not do as "it hurt too much."

Asked if there were any signs about the room, the witness told the court that he saw a diploma, which had been issued in Iowa, hanging on the wall.

"Would you say that the treatment was any different from that practised by other chiropractors?" defence counsel, Lorne C. Lee, Aurora, asked the witness.

"Well, I never had a treatment like it before by any other chiropractor," was the reply.

Harry Rutherford, Toronto, also a private investigator of the board of regents, testified that he was with Mr. King on each of his visits to Mr. Smith and that he too had his back x-rayed, for which he paid $1.

Questioned as to whether Mr. Smith was registered under the Druggists and Practitioners' act, Archie Macfie, secretary-treasurer and registrar of the board of regents, stated that there was no one bearing the name of Thomas Smith registered at all. He stated that the D.C. at the end of Mr. Smith's name stood for Doctor of Chiropractic.

"I am registering a conviction against you," his worship told the defendant. "You knew perfectly well that you must be registered. You deliberately went out and practised. However, as the complainant is not asking for a heavy sentence, I am being lenient with you."

Fines of $15 and costs or 15 days on a charge of dangerous driving and $25 and costs or 30 days in jail on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident were imposed on Michael Enright, Aurora, as a result of an accident which happened at the intersection of Wellington St. and the second concession of King on May 6.

According to the evidence of Mildred Follitt, King, she had been driving west on Wellington St. and as she approached the intersection a sedan coming from the south on the concession road turned the corner at a great speed and after side-swiping the rear of her car proceeded east on Wellington St. towards Aurora without stopping. She said that she called to the driver of a passing truck to chase the sedan and get the license number.

Questioned further by Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C., the witness stated that she had driven her car to the side of the road in order to avoid the accident. She said that she later found a piece of glass from the defendant's headlight lying on the road. She notified the police.

"Did you have any interview with the accused since the accident?" asked the crown.

"Yes, last Wednesday, he came to see about settling for the damage," answered the witness. "He said that he was sorry." Miss Follitt said that damage amounted to $30.20.

Cross-examined by the defence, the witness stated that the $30.20 included the price of a new tire.

"You agree that this is a very dangerous intersection?" asked the defence.

"Yes, one shouldn't go very fast there," replied the witness.

Clinton Felker, Aurora, passenger in the truck going east on Wellington St., said that he saw the sedan clip Miss Follitt's car, and that he gave chase to the fleeing car. He did not catch up with the car but could see part of the license plates, which bore a number beginning with 75 X.

William Mount, Aurora, a foreman in the employ of the Toronto and York roads commission, stated that his men were working on the Wellington St. highway when the sedan passed by. He went with Miss Follitt to report to Constable Fisher Dunham. Cross-examined by the defence, he said that there was a bad bump where the dirt road meets the highway.

According to the testimony of Allan Pike, King, he met Mr. Enright at the Bateman farm on the second concession of King, where the latter had come to buy some eggs. He said that the defendant wanted him to do some work for him, and took him along in his car to his farm on Yonge St. in order to show him what he wanted done.

"We turned north towards Wellington St.," stated the witness. "I saw a truck coming along the highway and told Mr. Enright about it. He went into second gear." The witness added that they were going about 25 miles an hour, but that he could not say for sure, as the speedometer was broken, and that Miss Follitt's car appeared suddenly. He further stated that they hit a large bump, and that he put his hand on the steering wheel as they turned onto the highway.

Questioned as to any statements made in the car at the time of the accident, Mr. Pike said that later he asked Mr. Enright if he did not think that he had hit the other car but that the defendant said that he did not think that he had.

Constable Sydney Barracough, Aurora, who investigated the accident, stated that as a result of information received he approached Mr. Enright on May 9. "The defendant said, 'Perhaps I was in an accident,'" testified the officer. "He said, 'As I was driving up to Wellington St. I hit a bump. I didn't know I had hit a car until after. Perhaps I should have gone back.' He said that as such little damage was done to his car he did not think that it was much of an accident."

In his defence Mr. Enright stated that he slowed up as he came to the intersection. "I didn't come to a full stop because there is a high bank as you come to Wellington St." He stated that it is difficult to see the traffic coming from the east on the highway. He kept watching the truck coming from the west and upon turning into the intersection he suddenly hit a bump. He denied knowledge of hitting the Follitt car and said he did not remember Mr. Pike saying that they might have hit it.

"You were speeding along a bad road," Magistrate Woodliffe told the defendant. "I am satisfied that you knew you hit Miss Follitt's car. You intended to get away with it." His worship suspended the defendant's driver's license for one year.

A 19-year-old King township youth, William F. Mesley, Jr., was fined $5 and costs on a charge of careless driving. The youth admitted that as he was driving his motorcycle along the fourth concession he turned out to pass an automobile. In doing so he collided with another car coming in the opposite direction. He said that he tried to get back to his side of the road but was unable to do so. Damage done to the car amounted to $125.

Charged with speeding in Whitechurch township, Eldest J. Sand, Trenton, was fined $5 and costs or five days. Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson told his worship that the defendant was driving at between 60 and 65 miles an hour.

A charge of attempting to pass another car on the highway at a time when it is unsafe for approaching traffic, against Howard N. Curle, Toronto, was withdrawn. Constable Ferguson told his worship that he was going north when he met another car coming out to pass a second car on a 20-foot road. The officer stated that he had to apply his brakes in a hurry in order to avoid a collision.

In his own defence, Mr. Curle stated that the incident happened at a curve and that he was turning his radio down. He said that his car is light in weight and that the wind blew it over to the other side of the road. He had no intention of passing the other car.

"The accused made a reasonable explanation of what happened," stated his worship.

Donald V. Grille, Toronto, was fined $3 and costs for having bad lights on his car. Constable Ferguson testified that the defendant had no headlights and that the only light on the car working was the parking light.

A fine of $10 and costs was imposed on Everton Rolling, Mount Albert, for not having efficient brakes on his car.

A charge of exceeding the speed limit in King township against E. Hession, London, Ont., was adjourned until next week. Constable Ferguson told his worship that the accused's car had no tail-light and that the driver had no operator's license either. "He said that he had one but did not have it with him," stated the officer. "He didn't have an identification card either." The case was adjourned for investigation.

Constable Fisher Dunham gave evidence that four motorists drove through Aurora at over 45 miles an hour. They received fines of $8 and costs. They were Anthony Kingston, Orillia, David McGlynn, Kingston, Gerald Elliott, Hamilton, and an unnamed driver for a Toronto firm. Three other motorists who drove at 43 miles an hour through the same town were fined $6 and costs. They were Grant Fisher, London, I. H. Foster, Toronto, and Florence M. Brooks, Toronto.

Kenneth Goodwin, Newmarket, was fined $10 and costs for speeding through Sharon. Constable J. Jardine told his worship that Mr. Goodwin was driving at 50 miles an hour and that he tried to stop him.

"I followed him through Sharon," testified the officer. "He kept cutting in and out of traffic. I finally stopped him north of Queensville."

"Did he give an explanation?" asked the magistrate.

"He said that he didn't see me and that he didn't doubt but that he was speeding," was the reply. Four drivers were fined $10 and costs each for not having 1941 operator's licenses. They were Edison Ash, Aurora, and Elizabeth Swindle, Doris Day and Thomas Head, all of Toronto. Constable Aubrey Fleury, Whitechurch, laid the charges.

Pleading not guilty to a charge of failing to have a license on his trailer, Arthur Steckley, Stouffville, was given a remanded sentence on payment of costs, when he told Magistrate Woodliffe that he used the trailer instead of his horses when he went to the mill. He said that he was not accustomed to use the trailer outside the farm.

Pleading guilty to charges of failing to produce his registration certificate and of failing to produce a driver's license when asked to do so by Constable Aubrey Fleury, Archie Carmichael, Toronto, was fined $1 and costs on each account. The officer told his worship that the defendant told him that he had these certificates but that they were in his working clothes.

Ten dollars and costs was the fine imposed on Cecil Morris, Toronto, for failing to produce a motor vehicle permit when requested by County Constable Aubrey Fleury. On a second charge, failing to produce his operator's license, he was given a remanded sentence.

Magistrate Woodliffe fined S. J. Reynolds, Toronto, $3 and costs for failing to produce his operator's license when requested by the officer.

Mr. Wiese refused to leave Taming, in Hopei province, when the Japanese occupied the city in 1937, in order to protect the central compound, which includes the church, seating 1,000, the hospital and training school, and other buildings.

The pictures show piles of shells and weapons picked up in and around the compound after the battle. Ever since that time the compound has been in the line of fire by hostile bands.

Miss Rhoda Schuman, formerly pastor of the Church of the Nazarene here at Newmarket, was stationed at Taming and is now on furlough. She will be in Newmarket the last two weeks in July assisting in a Daily Vacation Bible school. (Adv't.)

BEATING THE BOUNDS

By GOLDEN GLOW

"Beating the bounds" is a church service, asking God's blessing on the seed about to be sown. The three days before Ascension Day (Ascension Day always falls on a Thursday, being 40 days after Easter), Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, are called, in the church calendar, rogation days. Rogation simply means intercession or a litany, and the rogation days are observed by special prayers in all Anglican churches for seed sown.

It was an ancient custom in the early church and in many parishes has never quite died out, and it has so far as I know, always been called "beating the bounds." It means, literally, the boundaries of a parish. In England, where it still is the custom in many places, they have far more parishes than do we here in Canada, and much closer together, and have not our distance to contend with.

In accordance with the usual custom, "beating the bounds" was observed on Tuesday afternoon in an out-of-doors service at St. John's on the Hill, the beautiful farm home of the Order of the Sisters of St. John the Divine, on the Cosford Road, just north of St. Andrew's College and west of Yonge St., between here and Aurora. There were Sisters present from their Toronto hospital, and from their convalescent home near Lansing, and clergy from both Toronto and the surrounding parishes.

The service opened with the litany from the prayer book and special intercessions and a rogation hymn in the beautiful little chapel in connection with the home, then the procession formed and psalms were recited, verse about, as the march proceeded from one station to the next, and at each station prayers were said and hymns sung. The service was finished as the procession again reached the chapel, with prayers and the benediction. It was a very reverent and beautiful service, amid the wonderful setting of St. John's on the Hill in springtime, for the cultivated flowers and shrubs in the gardens were all in bloom and there were wild flowers along the lane where we went—a lane bordered with chokecherry trees in full bloom, past orchards with blossoming fruit trees, while both trees and grass everywhere were a vivid glowing green.

VANDORF Mrs. Wm. A. McDonald Dies, Had Long Illness

Mrs. J. A. Ledson of Toronto was a weekend visitor at the Switzer home.

Miss Marion VanNostrand has completed her course at the Toronto normal school and is holidaying at home.

Deepest sympathy is extended to William A. McDonald and family in the loss of Mrs. McDonald, who passed away early Monday morning, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. McDonald's maiden name was Christena Homer. She was born at Elgin Mills 60 years ago. Almost her entire life was spent in Whitchurch. She was the last surviving member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Homer. Her sisters, Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Hughes, and her brother, Maurice, all passed away in 1938.

Mrs. McDonald was devoted to her home and family. She was always interested in church and community activities and did her share. She was a gracious hostess and will be very much missed by a wide circle of friends. Even when very ill she was cheerful and patient.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss four daughters, Mary, Flora, Ethel and Grace. Rev. W. A. Westcott conducted the service at her residence on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended and interment took place at Newmarket. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The pupils of Hartman and Vandorf schools and their teachers, Miss Betty Ball and Roy King, and many others attended the Whitchurch field meet in Stouffville park on Friday afternoon.

Members are still doing splendid work for the Red Cross. Mrs. Walter Graham will supply anyone with wool for the Red Cross work and Mrs. Arthur VanNostrand has charge of the sewing. Letters of acknowledgment ment have been received for all but one Christmas box. Letters were received from Jos. Clarke, Chas. Davidson, Stanley Sloman and Douglas Jennings, thanking the Institute for Easter boxes. The following is a letter from Spr. Douglas Jennings, who is somewhere in England:

April 3, 1941.
Dear Mrs. Petch: It was quite a surprise to receive a parcel this morning. It is my job to handle all the mail that comes into this unit and I was real happy to get this great box. I should like you to convey to all those who took part in making up mine and other fellows' boxes that the Red Cross are doing a fine work. Everyone here, the Canadian Red Cross and the American, are doing great work. Without such societies we wouldn't get very far. We are real grateful for all that is done for us.

There isn't very much for news, for though we are at war we are not in real action yet, but are continually on manoeuvres and in mimic battles. I'm sure that when we really get to close quarters with the enemy we will be more than efficient in stopping him. Of course, I can't give you any detail of what actually goes on, but you take it from me, and I ought to know a little, as I'm a dispatch rider and get around the country from the south coast to the Midlands, and from what I see we are well prepared.

The raids on this country in the last month were very small. Yet no one can account for the sudden lapse in activity. Of course, we can make up our own minds about it, yet we are not sure.

Well, how is everybody at Vandorf? I suppose the weather is breaking up now and you can get on the land. The farmers have a real stiff year ahead of them and we have to have food. Civilians get 25 cents worth of meat for one week and four ounces of butter, one ounce of cheese a week, no oranges or onions. Everything is scarce. Still I expect we shall survive somehow. Things are moving pretty fast on the continent so we are trusting that we shall make a move before long.

Well, I guess this is all for now. Remember me to everybody. Hoping you all have a real good prosperous year. P.S. I am always glad to hear from anybody who writes and will try to answer any letters. Sometimes our letters don't get here or our letters back.

"BLOOD...TOIL... TEARS and SWEAT"

This is a war for existence. It is war to the death. It is a war to win or to lose.

There can be no half way—no compromise. It is a war to WIN.

Money is the fourth arm of the service.

Whatever you are called on to pay or to lend, it is little compared to the lives that our sons offer.

There have been many and heavy calls upon Canada already.

There will be more.

Let us face the truth and the truth will make us free.

It is freedom we are fighting for, British freedom, the freedom of body and spirit that makes life worth living.

If we fail, we fall.

Be prepared for sacrifice.

Great Britain has set us an example on a scale of heroic magnificence history doesn't record.

Let us FIGHT!

Canada has the resources. Let us spare nothing. When our soldiers offer their lives, let us be willing to share our livelihood.

Presently the Government of Canada will call for money.

The money is here.

We are spending billions. We are already heavily taxed. But most of these billions and those taxes are being spent in Canada. That money comes back to you. Keep it rolling. Keep putting it back into the war effort, so that it may be spent again and again and again until Right prevails and the world is free.

MOVIES
THIS AND THAT Short
"March of Time" again releases a timely short subject entitled "Crisis in the Atlantic." The inside story of America's own war front—the Atlantic Ocean!
Uncle Sam's navy in action, patrolling ship lanes against Nazi raiders... first exclusive pictures of Greenland now under full U.S.
protection... the March of Time cameraman photographed a thrilling convoy sequence during a long and perilous voyage in convoy from Canada to England. He will remain in England, where he is filming life under fire for the next March of Time release.

Still Going Strong Walt Disney's "Fantasia," in its 27th week in New York and 17th week in Boston is expected to open in Montreal and Toronto soon.
Several years ago Fox Films had our favorite oriental sleuth, Charlie Chan, tracking them down all over the globe. Then the Hungarian star (Warner Oland) died. They found a new crime detective, but the series lost its appeal and it was discontinued.

Along came Paramount last year, made a comedy with Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour ("Road to Singapore").
"This turned out to be just what the customer wanted and this year the same team went to Zanzibar.
Now they tell us they will soon be on the "Road to Morocco" and then they are to visit the Soviet Union via "The Road to Moscow."

New Detective Mystery Series
The authors of the "Ellery Queen" novels have signed a contract to supply material for another four in this series, to be produced next season. So far Columbia released two and these are proving to be good entertainment. They are fashioned after the "The Thin Man" series.
It's Back Again
Dead-pan comic, Buster Keaton, famous for many years in the silent days, will return to the screen with Judy Canova in "Puddin' Head."

Holding His Own
George Formby, who sky-rocketed to fame overnight, is still as popular as ever. "I See Ice," which is the latest Canadian release, is reputed to be as funny
as its predecessor.
A New Link
Allee Faye, Don Ameche and Carmen Miranda will again be seen together in a 20th Century
Fox technicolor musical production fashioned after "Down Argentine Way" and "That Night in Rio." This looks like the beginning of a new series.

Last year 20th Century Fox was well out in front, with four series pictures, all of which have now been abandoned. They were Charlie Chan, Mr. Moto, the Jones
Family and the Roving Reporter adventures.
Two Of A Kind
Like Alfred Hitchcock, Gregory Ratoff always appears in every picture he directs. Last week he started "Tonight Belongs to Us," which will star Loretta Young, by appearing himself in the first scene.

The Man of Tomorrow
"Superman," the man of tomorrow, is to be seen soon in Paramount shorts, now in production at the Fleischer studios.
Hit by Hit
The famous "Dead End" kids will head the cast of Universal's new 12-chapter serial, "Sex Raider."
Since reaching fame they have been seen together and separately in many pictures, but this will be their first serial, which no doubt will prove very popular with the youngsters.

Big Names
No. 2 of "International Forum," a new 18-minute short subject, will bring to the screen such famous names as Major George Fielding Elliot, military columnist of the New York Herald Tribune, Ralph Ingersoll, editor and publisher of the New York newspaper, P. M., and Linton Wells, foreign correspondent and CBS newscaster.

THE Census is the stock-taking of the nation — of its

it, all Governments, — Dominion, Provincial and Municipal—are enabled to work more effectively and economically in the interest of every resident of the Dominion.

MOUNT ALBERT CAMP PABRE SPEAKS AT Y.P.S. BANQUET

Sunday will be a patriotic Sunday and there will be a special service in keeping with the day at the United Church. A junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Draper Lyons, will provide special music.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Steeper and Mr. and Mrs. E. Wrightman and Marilyn spent Sunday at Guelph.

Saturday, June 7, will be sports day in Mount Albert, an old home day, a time to meet all the old friends and have a visit. Everybody will be entertained from the time they come till they decide to go home. Many valuable prizes are given away. There will be games and races and clowns for the kiddies, a concert and dancing at night, a Red Cross booth and a veterans' booth, proceeds of which will all go to patriotic purposes. Come and spend the day.

The Y.P.S. of the United church held their annual banquet on Monday evening, when a lovely supper was provided by the committee in charge, and about 35 young people were present. Capt. Rev. T. W. F. G. Andrews of Newmarket training camp was the guest speaker. He told about the boys in the camp and things they needed in the line of testaments and better reading matter.

He said the present would be better than the past, that young people of the present generation should live to be even better than the past generation.

"Quality not quantity counts," he said. "Be connected with some form of religion, do not drift away."

The toasts were given to "The King," by Margaret Forsyth; "The church," proposed by Allan Dixon and responded to by O. Hancock; "The Y.P.S.," proposed by President Murray Rutledge and replied to by Howard Cunningham. Roy Stewart spoke as a past president to the young people. Miss Pauline Sinclair and Mrs. Donald Stiver were soloists and instrumental solos were given by Margaret and Billy Ross and Mel. Oldham.

Ples. John Oliver and Donald Stewart of Toronto were in town over the weekend.

A.C. Jack Pearson of Toronto was on leave over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dorland of Bradford were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Theaker on Sunday.

The L.O.L. of Mount Albert are putting forth every effort possible to make the July 12 celebration at Mount Albert this year a huge success. This will be the 61st anniversary of the founding of Mount Albert lodge. A bale, including 18 slips, 18 dresses, six flannelette jackets, eight pairs of socks, three baby sweaters, two nightgowns, four prs. booties, seven bonnets, two cot quilts, one pair of khaki whole mitts, 32 pairs of air force mitts, four refugee boys' sweaters and 25 prs. of socks, has been recently packed by the Mount Albert unit of the Red Cross and shipped.

MOUNT ALBERT NAMELESS BENEFACTOR GIVES FLAG TO PARK

A large Union Jack flag has been given to the park board without any name attached except "An old Mount Albert boy," and the board would like to say how much they appreciate this kindly thoughtfulness. It comes now, just when the old flag is about worn out, so will be very useful. It is hoped that this may come to the eyes of the one who sent it.

Mrs. A. Case, Sr., was taken seriously ill at her home in the village on Sunday, but is now a little better.

A miscellaneous shower was held on Tuesday evening of this week at the home of Miss Edith Harrison for Miss Viola Lunau, a bride of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of Toronto were weekend guests of Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Handsford.

The public schools of the township are holding a field day at the park on Friday. Everyone is welcome. The Red Cross will have a booth on the grounds.

Lyman Pearson is improving his building by putting a coat of stucco on it.

Mr. Leadbetter has finished the stucco on his building. All these add to the improvement of the town.

The telephone company is making a nice lawn at the north side of their building.

The collections of salvage which were sold last week amounted to $34.25 and consisted of iron, rags and aluminum, and will go to the British war victims' fund. Citizens are asked to please save everything they have that can be used and, if no one calls for it, bring it to the building where it is stored in Mr. Barnes' lot.

It looked like old times on Tuesday morning when Mr. Isaac Fisher was back in town calling on old friends, as for years Mr. Fisher bought produce on the market here and the family lived in town. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and one daughter, Esther, now live in Santa Monica, Calif.

MOUNT ALBERT Mrs. Jas. Cleland Is Buried At Mt. Albert

The remains of the late Mrs. Jas. Cleland were brought to Mount Albert for burial from her home in Toronto on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cleland was formerly Mary Ann Johnston and was born 91 years ago. She lived with her husband on a farm on the second concession of Scott, until retiring, when they came to Mount Albert to live and later moved to Toronto, where she passed away after being an invalid for some years.

She is survived by her husband and one son, Ben, who resides in Halifax.

Aircraftman Noel Calver of the R.C.A.F. was recently promoted to leading aircraftman, having obtained his first class papers for chef.

EVERESLEY AURORA MISSION BAND VISITS LOCAL JUNIORS

Rev. Mr. Atkinson has consented to be "stated supply" for the Everesley and King charge from now until the end of September. While his home is in Toronto, Mr. Atkinson will spend the greater part of his time in King.

The community is saddened by the death of Dr. G. D. Lockhart. Though frail for a long time, he was always ready to respond to any call for help. Last week he became over-fatigued, gradually sank into a state of coma, and passed away.

A young son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cairns (nee Hilda Jones), on May 9, at York county hospital. Mr. Cairns is manager of the farm formerly belonging to the late Ivan V. Follitt, and now owned by Redvers Brown of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bowen have a young granddaughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Williamson of Vaughan (nee Edith Bowen).

Three of Everesley school entrance class have passed their exams successfully and have been released for farm work. They are Isobel Follitt, who becomes assistant housekeeper with her mother, Mrs. Clifford Follitt, Jimmie Kerswell, who will assist his father, Lloyd Kerswell, with the help of Allan Crossley, released from high school, and Archie Cadden, who will be the right-hand man of his father, Bert Cadden.

Congratulations are extended to these three students and to their teacher, Miss McClure.

Dr. Harvey Gellatly, his wife and two children, Bruce and Marion, motored down from Fort William and reached King on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gellatly are domiciled at Ferndale farm for the summer months, Mr. Gellatly still going to the city for his work.

Aurora Presbyterian mission band visited Everesley juniors in their meeting in the church on Friday night. Everesley gave the program with their youthful leader, Nancy Ball, in the chair, and the capable secretary, June Mesley, beside her. Musical numbers were played on the piano by several of the children, George and Joyce Hatley, Catherine and Violet McKie and others. It is surprising how much musical talent is being developed in the children.

Nancy Ball sang "There'll Always Be An England," and everybody sang "Jesus Wants Me for a Sunbeam." Short recitations were given. Mrs. J. Bond of Aurora was present and gave a good talk and delightful story for the children. June Mesley read a good story. Mrs. A. McClure also had a good talk for them, so the program was much enjoyed. Mrs. McKie, the leader, and her assistants, Misses Annie Ferguson and Marie Ball, gave a delightful lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

Pte. Jack Arnold, of Valcartier, Que., spent the past weekend with his wife and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rae returned home after their honeymoon trip through northern Ontario. While there they called on Mrs. Rae's sister, Mrs. Randall Wood, in South Porcupine.

Mr. Harry Newlove of the R.C.A.F., St. Thomas, and family visited Mr. Newlove's sister, Mrs. G. Cronsberry, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ward and family of Weston, Mrs. Woodburn and son, Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Gordon of Toronto were Sunday guests at the Hadden farm.

Misses May Weir and Mary Laviolette called on Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rae on Sunday.

QUEENSVILLE WOMEN CONCERNED RE BEER

The alcoholic beverage situation in Newmarket was the subject of discussion and prayer at a meeting of the Queensville women's prayer society at the home of Miss Kennedy, 4th concession, East Gwillimbury, yesterday afternoon.

Much concern was expressed about the proposed beverage rooms in the town.

Speakers included Mr. A. McAsh, of Maple Hill Baptist church, Rev. O. G. Shantz of Sutton, and Clarence King, Sharon, recent graduate of an Alberta Bible college, who has been conducting a series of meetings at Queensville Gospel Tabernacle.

This week and next residents of East Gwillimbury are asked to collect and bring to their local Red Cross centre, scrap metals, rags, bones, waste paper, bottles, etc.

The campaign will be conducted through the various school sections and school boys and girls will assist in every way possible. Give them your loyal support when they call on you. This is one contribution you can make. If possible, take your contribution to the local centre.

Don't say "My little bit won't count." Your parcel may seem small, but there are two million homes in Canada to contribute a like amount. You would not throw away a bullet, a bomber or a soldier's blanket. Those are the things your waste material provides.

The Newmarket Bowling club held its official 1941 opening last night and about 40 members were present to enjoy the games. It was decided to hold a mixed tournament this Saturday afternoon starting at 1:30 o'clock.

Walter Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ball of Maidstone, Sask., was the guest of Councillor and Mrs. Arthur Evans last Saturday.

Mr. Ball, with several other graduates from the College of Engineers, University of Saskatchewan, is now in the aircraft inspection school in Toronto for a few months' course of instruction before being assigned to an airplane factory to inspect material used in the construction of planes. Many Newmarket citizens will recall that Mrs. Harry Ball is the former Miss Nellie Rixon, who was head of Mrs. C. M. Hughes' millinery department before the last war.

The boys and girls of the local school took part in a field day last Friday afternoon, in which races and jumps formed part of the events. The winners of the greatest number of points in each group were as follows: "A" group, boys, Francis Gibeby, girls, Marion Coates; "B" group, boys, Frank Lepard and Earl Stickwood, tied, girls, Audrey Wilson; "C" group, boys, Lorne Gibeby and Donald Andrews, tied, girls, Helen Mainprize.

All the winners from the local school will compete against the winners of all East Gwillimbury schools at Mount Albert next Friday and later on at the joint school meet of six townships, which will be held at Richmond Hill.

The Home and School club will hold its next meeting on Thursday evening, May 29, at 8 p.m. sharp. The Queensville male quartet will be present, and other local talent.

Mr. Harold Cunningham, a student at the University of Toronto, is home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Couch and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Widdifield of Cedar Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boyd of Sharon were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stickwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan MacInnis and Mrs. Marjorie Cupples of Toronto were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watts on Sunday.

Mr. Jas. Knott, Miss Maude Knott, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gibney and Mr. Lorne Gibney spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Wagg of Uxbridge.
